Dear Families,

Original Works is back! We are continuing the tradition of having your children's artwork available on items like mugs and magnets just in time for the holidays as gifts to family, friends, and yourself. I've attached an Original Works brochure and order information as a preview to items available and the green Original Works packet to arrive your cubby next week.

Beginning Monday, October 29th, you will find in your child's cubby:

- 1) your child's original artwork (please do NOT lose or damage the artwork),
- 2) Original Works (OW) brochure with product information, and
- 3) and an OW order form.

SUGGESTION: In order to keep your child's artwork in good condition, feel free to just view the artwork in the green sleeve and only take home the order information, returning the artwork to the main office. This will reduce the travel crunch on your child's artwork.

Please review the OW information in your cubby and be sure to return the following to the PSCCC office by Monday, November 5th:

- 1) your child's artwork (in its original condition),
- 2) your completed order form, and
- 3) payment (checks payable to "PSCCC").

It is important that you return your child's artwork in the condition you receive it whether or not you make a purchase. We will order a quilt piece of each student's artwork from Original Works to make the end of the year quilt that hangs at graduation and eventually in the school.

Siblings and friends can join in on making artwork to order, too! Please let me know. You just need to pick up paper, make the artwork per layout instructions, and return with the order form and payment to the PSCCC office all by Monday, November 5th.

Original Works is returning to provide this service to families and is one of a few fundraising opportunities for the Collective this year. A portion of the proceeds comes back to the school for each item you order. Last year's families raised over a thousand dollars for the school through Original Works, a success and effort that benefits all. I do hope you participate in this year's Original Works fundraising project. It's a great opportunity to give unique gifts and cross off holiday gift lists while you fundraise for the school. Happy ordering!

Yours truly,

Manyi Wong
Executive Director
